FRUEH WINS "CYNING"!

Congratulations go to Mark Frueh for a crushing win in AGE OF RENAISSANCE. So far we have only Hanna and Copeland signed up to challenge him in the next one, "The Knyghtes Tale".

Disappointingly "Egbert" didn't finish this time, but ought to join "Lord Stanley" in the record book next issue. 1835 probably won't finish next issue since PR is likely to pop for a 6-train.

See page two for my quick & dirty Con Report.

GAME OPENINGS:

CIRCUS MAXIMUS: The red chariot may be available

DUNE: The BG may be available.

TITAN: The red and gold legions may be available.

1830: Room for one more since either Chuck or Mark volunteered to run it.

Gunboat MACH: Have three signed up.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: "The most inalienable gift that the rational soul possesses is that of Choice. All other faculties may wax or wane....But the will is always itself -- acting and choosing -- and cannot cease: there is no such thing as indeciveness in reality -- it is no less than a rapid alteration of decisions. Ultimately, therefore, the rational soul becomes not what it necessarily understands, nor what it superficially loves -- but that which it chooses." --Robert Hugh Benson

Alan Bargender is moving again. See p 18 for new e- & snailmail addresses.

As mentioned later, I played a demo game of MANIFEST DESTINY, a North American sequel to AGE OF RENAISSANCE. It's in the GMT P500 program and needs another 50ish orders to go into production. Check it out at <http://www.gmtgames/nnpd/main.html>.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Boldue Press Excellence Award (and free issue) goes to Walt O'Hara for his DUNE article (I forgot to print it last issue).

This month's Ms Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb is lobbed at Walt O'Hara for a triple NMR.

PERSONAL COMMUNICATION HERE (maybe):

Deadline for most games is 1800 CST 5 SEP 03

MIRKWOOD: Three of the five remaining Powers had their homelands invaded this season and a fourth fended off two invading armies. The Austrian beachhead in SMY should seal the Turk's fate in '08. Germany's invasion of Italy has doomed A MAR and set up a guessing game in Iberia. Italy's invasion of Austria looks to be more of a raid or a diversion than a serious threat considering the Germanic swarm moving in from the West.

TROOP MOVEMENTS:

Germany builds A BER, MUN, and F KIE. Russian builds A WAR.

AUSTRIA (R Fisher): [A Bul-Con]r-???), A Gre-Smy, F Aeg C A Gre-Smy, A Alb H(u), F Eas S A Gre-Smy', [A Gal-Sil]

Austrian A BUL must retreat otb or to GRE or SER. Turkish A SMY must retreat otb or to CON or SYR.

Orders in brackets fail; CD = Civil Disorder, d = disbanded, otb = off the board, otm = on the move, r-??? = must retreat somewhere, u = unordered. See map and full transcript of game on the Website.

Due next time: Orders for retreats and for Fall 1906 and Press.

EMBASSY BEAT

T-G: Excellent board position! Two centers each from A/I/R and you're a shoo-in.

T-I: Thanks, your "good will" will be remembered in some future incarnation.

WBC REPORT

Sad to say, no WBC wood for me this year. The closest I managed was 8th in CIRCUS MAXIMUS (two out from minor wood) and a fifth in my own WIZARD'S QUEST tourney. While at WBC, I played four games of CIRCUS MAXIMUS, three games of GANGSTERS, two of PRINCESS RYAN'S STARMARINES, PUERTO RICO, and WIZARD'S QUEST, and one each of CIRCUS MINIMUS, MANIFEST DESTINY, MERCHANT OF VENUS, MONSTERS RAVAGE AMERICA, SLAPSHOT, and UNION PACIFIC. Roommates Paul Saunders picked up Wood with a second place in PRINCESS RYAN and Michael Saunders the "King's Orcslayer" plaque in the WIZARD'S QUEST consolation Round.

WBC had over 1000 attendees. I saw Boriser Wade Fowble in the hallway and heard that Walt O'Hara was there at least Friday night. Ex-Boriser Dan Farrow and son were there too.

The voucher deal worked out OK. The choice was to stay at the Marriott at $126/night with $30/night of vouchers or across the road at $126/night and no vouchers. Even when they were worth only .80 on the dollar (20% gratuity built into use) it was still a better deal. Especially since service at the local Wendy's was so bad.

The big new games this year appear to have been VANISHED PLANET (think WIZARDS in space) and MYSTERY OF THE ABBEY (think CLUE in a monastery).

Ragnocitti: It's open season on minor powers and the French it seems, as three city states and the French garrison in MIL are being besieged and the Turkish tars walloped the French salts in GOL. The Austrian convoy into nominally Turkish territory (supported by the Porte even) bears study.

Orders for the retreat and for Fall 1513 are due next time. And Press. Ms Nar craves Press.

Game transcript and, if I get lucky with graphics, perhaps a game map are on the website.

Breakout Normandy

D-Day VI

November 7th - 9th, 2003
Days Hotel, Timonium, MD

The sixth annual dedicated mini-con for the competitive play of Breakout Normandy in a five-round, Swiss format GMed by the designer. This event always attracts a highly competitive field which has yet to produce a repeat winner.

--CIRCUS MAXIMUS (continued from p 4)

Press:

Coughing from the dust, Josephis looked over his startled team; "Racing horses" he thought, "more like blind mice." "How could you run into a cart?" he shouted to the team. Quickly looking around for possible attackers he realized he was last and the field was rapidly receding. "Maybe a touch of the old whip will clear your vision" he shouted as the whip cracked over the brace of horses and he grabbed for support as the cart surged ahead.

Since four of you were officially NMR at the deadline, two were still NMR at presstime, the combat is still unresolved, and last month was a heavy convention/vacation month, I'm holding the resolution of Turn 4 until next month or until the combat is over.

In the meantime, here's some things to keep in mind:

1. Like flfplay, you must attempt to move at least one legion each turn.

2. There's no rule against you asking another player if he is going to move a particular legion. As the board gets more crowded, it will be essential to start talking to each other to avoid unwanted battles.

3. The House Rules have been amended to include the numbering scheme for the battlefield hexes. I'll post it shortly.

Reverend Mother Waltallo surveyed her options from the visiting dignitary suite at Carthag's only hotel. So many possibilities, so many threads in the skein of fate. Who would prove the victor? She had had a powerful vision of a house going down in flames, every member put to the sword. Like many visions, the details were blurry; and in all things, there was no certainty. "Is this a shadow of what is, or what might be?" She sighed and sipped her spice tonic; even, she would be meeting with the local indigenous natives. There was a power there, she guessed. Something that might effect the Program. Something that might go beyond the mere surreptitious shipment of spice through Sisterhood channels. "Something to look into..." she thought. Now, if she could only avoid notice of the interfering Harkonnen officials in this dustbin of a city, all would proceed as planned.

Recent disturbing rumors and strange occurrences on Planet Arrakis have lead the Landsraad to be displeased with the current administration and necessitate a change be imposed upon all concerned parties. The Noble Houses have decided to exert direct influence on Arrakis to ensure the uninterrupted flow of Spice and prevent disastrous consequences of impending conflict. Baron Moat and Earl Visconte have been assigned to directly contact the principals involved on Arrakis and the Emperor Shaddam IV has been freed to attend to other pressing matters in another quadrant. The Landsraad respectfully requests the co-operation of all parties, wishes to maintain calm on Dune and sternly warns the indigenous Fremen not to use the present uncertainties as an invitation to cause any disruptions to Imperial activities. Dune is central to continued trade and the prosperity of the Emportium and adverse occurrences will not be tolerated.

The Bottom Line

This is BORIS THE SPIDER, a 'zine dedicated to the play of multiplayer games. BORIS is usually published following the first Friday of the month by Paul & Meg Bolduc, 203 Devon Ct, Ft Walton Beach, FL 32547-3110 and currently has a subscription price of $10.50 for 12 issues in hardcopy ($13.25 in Canada, and $16 overseas) or a token $1 by e-mail (waived if overseas). A hardcopy sub will also include an e-mail sub. Make checks payable to "Paul Bolduc". BORIS can be reached at (850) 863-9081, or prbolduc@aol.com. If phoning, expect to be greeted by an answering machine. If we're here, not engaged in an epic computer battle or enthralled in baseball, hockey, or college football, and recognize your voice, you may get to talk to a real human, so don't hang up upon hearing our recorded message (it changes every power outage).
